

When Is the Right Time to Honor Our Military Heroes?

The right time to honor our military heroes is “all the time”. Anytime we see a soldier or veteran, we need to honor them and “thank them” for their service and their sacrifices. Our military heroes have given their time, and many have left their families to go fight for our country so that we can enjoy the freedoms here at home. Many more have given the ultimate sacrifice, their life, for us to have our freedoms. Our military heroes should be honored all day, everyday! We should honor our military heroes who are serving overseas by taking care of their families and kids who are here in America. We should make sure they have food to eat and clothes to wear and a place to live. That would be one way we could honor their spouse who is fighting for us! If you are walking through the mall and see a military hero, you should stop and thank them for their service to our country. If you are walking through the airport and see a military hero, you should stop and thank them for their service to our country! If you are at a restaurant and see a military hero, you should offer to buy them dinner and thank them for their service to our country! At Christmas time we can honor our military heroes who are serving overseas by sending them cards and care packages letting them know that we are thinking about them and thank them for their service to our country. We can also honor them by getting toys for their kids that are here in the states. This should also be done during all the other holidays like Thanksgiving and Easter too. When we are driving and see some of the greatest military heroes out on the street, homeless and begging for food and money, we need to honor them with the utmost respect that they deserve and more!! One way to do that is by buying a bag of food for them, and praying for them. So, “When Is the Right Time to Honor Our Military Heroes” you ask? ALL DAY! EVERY DAY!
